1013 Patagonia Men's Puff Pullover

Windproof and water-resistant, the Nano Puff« Pullover is warm, incredibly lightweight, highly compressible and can be worn as insulation or outer wear in cold climates. Built as a minimalist prototype for our weight-and-performance-obsessed alpinists, the original Nano grew into a cult classic and spawned offspring. This pullover remains sleek and pared down, using the best available synthetic insulation and designed with a deep-venting half-zip to avoid harness-line bulk and minimize weight, while maximizing trapped heat. It's weather-resistant enough to wear as an insulated shell in a wet snowstorm, trim enough to pull on for chilly rock pitches (and still see your footholds), and warm enough for light belay parka duty on quick alpine dashes. Sized in Men's Medium.

Value: $149.00

Donated By: Patagonia

Size is a Men's Medium.

3037 SoulCollage Weekend Retreat

Join Eva-Maria Sher in a weekend of soul-full submersion into your dream world. Spend a contemplative weekend in a secluded beach cottage on Meydenbauer Bay. SoulCollage is a playful, experiential process that bypasses the critical mind through image, imagination, and intuition. In the process developed by Seena B. Frost, you will discover surprising things about yourself, your inner voices, your true passion, and what might block you from being who you really are. The process is delightfully therapeutic but is not therapy. You can dive as deep as you choose. And no artistic talent is required.

Value: $425.00

Donated By: Eva Sher

Expires October 30th, 2011. All meals and art materials are provided. Gluten, dairy-free, and other special dietary needs can be accommodated.

Partly Cloudy Day I by St. John

The artist St. John was born in Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey, a forested ocean community. He spent most of his time outdoors sketching scenes of nature. Later, he attended Stockton College in New Jersey, where he developed his distinct painting style. Influenced by world renowned artists, such as Picasso, Rauschenberg, Demuth, and Basquiat, artist St. John lives in the aesthetic, where the rhythms of nature are his guides. "My paintings are an attempt to confirm where painting as an art has been, but also to create possibilities for the future. I think of my art as an infusion of early abstract 'expressionism' and modern 'pluralism' ideals."

Mabana School House Stay

Enjoy two nights in this relaxing and romantic retreat. The Mabana Schoolhouse is a cozy and historic home away from home just one hour from Seattle. Mabana was established in the early 1900s on the south end of Camano Island. The schoolhouse was built in 1913 and opened its doors to seven students that year. In 1980 it became a private residence and now has all the comforts of home. The original one room is now a large, beautiful, light-filled living and eating space with a well-stocked galley kitchen. It has a full bathroom, a cozy loft bedroom, and a beautiful yard and gardens. The beach is a short jaunt down the road. When the tide is out you can walk several miles along the Saratoga Passage. Eagles, sea lions, and shore and water birds are abundant here. An occasional whale may be spotted.

Value: $350.00

Donated By: Steve Gilbert

The gift certificate is not transferable without written agreement from the Schoolhouse owners. Expires August 31, 2011.

4

Quilceda Creek Cabernet Wine Flight

The Wine Advocate has rated Washington State's Quilceda Creek Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley its fourth 100 pt. rating in 6 years! Here is what the Wine Advocate wrote about the 1999: The sumptuous 1999 Cabernet Sauvignon is a dark ruby-colored wine with mouth-watering aromas of highly expressive blackberries awash in toasted oak and roasting spices. Medium to full-bodied, thick, concentrated, and exquisitely balanced, this mouth-coating tour de force is densely packed with jammy black fruits and cassis liqueur. It combines elegance with power in a manner reminiscent of Chateaux Margaux's prodigious 1990. This velvety-textured wine is complete, with magnificent depth of fruit, a profound personality, and the requisite structure for long-term cellaring. Bravo! Projected maturity: 2006-2020.ö

Photograph "Shopkeeper at the City Market"

"Shopkeeper at the City Market, Bangalore," is a print from the Postcards from Bhutan series of digital photographs by David Salesin. In December 2002, David (a Professor of Computer Science and Engineering at the University of Washington and a Senior Principal Scientist at Adobe Systems) traveled to Bhutan with his old friend, Mike Hawley (founder of the charity, Friendly Planet) to document the people and culture of this remote mountain kingdom. David sent back 150 digital "postcards" to his family during the trip. Ultimately, many of these photos were published as part of the world's largest book, "Bhutan: A Visual Odyssey Across the Last Himalayan Kingdom".

Yosemite Valley Photograph

This limited edition photography print was made looking into Yosemite Valley, Bridalveil Fall, and the Cathedral Rocks from an unusual point outside of Yosemite Valley in 1987. Parallel clouds were moving across the sky, creating a pattern of sunlight and shadows that mirrored the shapes of the cliffs, while revealing Bridalveil Fall in the full sunlight. The photograph was made with a 4x5" Linhof Technicka camera using Kodak Tri-X film. The print was made in a traditional photographic darkroom using Oriental Seagull paper. The print was then selenium toned and archivally processed. Treated properly, it should last hundreds of years.
